

Equine Assisted Learning: Effective Team Building

97%

Of employees and executives surveyed believe that lack of alignment within a team directly impacts the outcome of a task or project.

According to a survey by Clear Company

Also according to the survey by Clear Company:

- ❖ 75% of employers rate teamwork and collaboration as very important
- ❖ 39% of employees believe that people in their own organization don't collaborate enough
- ❖ 86% of employees and executives cite lack of collaboration or ineffective communication for failures

Teamwork in the workplace should stimulate creativity, engagement and innovation; however many employees simply stay in their comfort zone of expertise, and never seek out true collaboration.

As an owner or manager you must have clear ideas of how you want your employees to work together and be able to communicate those ideas to everyone effectively.

Getting the best out of your staff in order to achieve the overall goals of your business can be accomplished with clear, unambiguous communication, responding confidently to feedback and ensuring everyone is working in a totally motivated and fully cooperative way.

Have you heard about Equine Assisted Learning (EAL) and Neuro Linguistic programming (NLP):
A unique learning combination with amazing benefits?

Inspired Equine Assisted Learning CIC facilitate programs that are extremely effective for helping businesses to explore, develop and improve their leadership, communication, personal growth, corporate culture and teamwork. Horses are finely attuned to the emotions and body language of others and respond to human feelings and actions; revealing things about our behaviour and ourselves. There are many different NLP techniques that can be used to align corporate values and ensure team congruity. EAL + NLP is an extremely powerful way of allowing employees and executives to discover their own individual solutions to any problems they wish to address.

Learning is maximized when we come up with solutions ourselves.

Did you know there is a local EAL Centre with programs specifically designed to help improve teamwork, communication and leadership?
